President—Frank Mavis, Howard.

Vice Pres.—T. J. Hess, Bladensburg.

Secretary—Ida Mavis Rine, Bladensburg.

Asst. Secretary—Della Hess Van Winkle, Mt. Vernon.

Treasurer—A. D. Hess, Martinsburg.

The next reunion will be held in

Frank Whitmore's grove, Sept. 2, 1927.

BAND CONCERT ON WEDNESDAY EVENING

The regular concert by the K. of P. band will be given on Wednesday evening at 8:15 on the Public Square. The platform will be set up in the park near the Soldier's monument and will be elevated to a greater height than has marked previous concerts. This is expected to afford the crowd opportunity to see and hear the musicians with a greater satisfaction. While the numbers of the program were not announced today assurance is given that an entertaining and pleasing program will be given. Since the first of these concerts was given they have grown steadily in popular favor each one bringing out an audience larger than that immediately preceding it.

GAME NOT FINISHED

The K. of P.-Bellville baseball game ended in a row at Bellville Saturday afternoon with Bellville two runs to the good. The Mt. Vernon team left the field and refused to finish the game on account of few decisions on the part of the umpire.

BREDNUT

THE YEAR-AROUND NUT BUTTER FOR TABLE USE

2 Wonderful Offers—

HERE is butter economy such as you never expected! Remember as you read these offers that Brednut is the greatest year-around, butter-spread ever made. It never runs, never gets oily and sticky on hot days. It never comes out of the refrigerator hard and brittle. It is wonderfully uniform—every pound is just like every other pound, at any season of the year. It has the texture, the taste, the quality of the finest creamery butter at its best!

Offer No. 1

Go to your dealer today. Ask him for the special coupon that entitles you to a pound of Brednut for 19c. Try it on your table tonight. This offer is good only until Saturday, August 6.

Offer No. 2

Save the carton from this first pound of Brednut and the carton of every pound you buy during the next four weeks. Turn them in to your dealer. For every five empty cartons he will give you a pound of Brednut ABSOLUTELY FREE.

These offers mean that if your dealer is charging 24 cents a pound for Brednut, the actual cost to you of all the Brednut you use during the next month will be about 19c per pound.

You never saw a spread like this before at such a price! It is most tempting, delicious and satisfying.

It makes your whole meal more delicious. Remember it never runs. Never gets brittle. It's always the same the year around.

Your money back without question if Brednut does not satisfy!

Ask your dealer today for the special coupon.
